

COURSE PURPOSE

The Virginia Indigent Defense Commission has developed a workshop series whereby Virginia attorneys can exercise their trial skills and have other attorneys and judges provide feedback. The series was developed and designed to bridge the gap between lectures and in-court experience. The workshops typically offer three to six hours of CLE credit and certification hours.

COURSE SCHEDULE

8:30
Registration

9:00 to 10:00

*"Everything You Ever Wanted To Know About §46.2
But Were Afraid To Ask"*

Edward Riley, IV Esquire

10:00 to 10:15

Break

10:15 to 10:30

Team Preparation of Traffic Hypotheticals

Attorneys will be broken up into small teams and will be given time to prepare the fact patterns presented. Teams will need to decide which team member will act as attorney for their client charged with a traffic offense.

10:30 to 12:00

Traffic Hypotheticals

Attorneys will take turns "defending" clients in the traffic court mock trials. After each fact pattern, the opposing team members will provide the participant with the prosecutorial viewpoint. Finally, the panel members will provide constructive criticism to the participating attorney and answer any questions from the attendees.

12:00

Dismissal
